

Can you capture miracles?

£1800 Photographic Bursary for Social Enterprise

The Scottish Social Enterprise Coalition, the campaigning voice for social enterprise in Scotland, is looking for a talented photographer committed to visiting social enterprises around Scotland and showing how they change the lives of communities and individuals around them.

Your photos will be exhibited in our publications, the press, online and at venues across Scotland including The Scottish Parliament, Scottish Government Headquarters, S2S 2011 – our annual social enterprise fair in Edinburgh and the 2011 Social Enterprise World Forum in Johannesburg, South Africa.

The deadline for application is 5pm on Monday 9th August 2010
